The timeline of Indo-Greeks

Heracles (a descendant of Ionians) conquered Gāndhāra and Bactria up to the rock of Alorus.	~1890 BCE
Many Yavanas (Ionians) migrated from Ionia and settled in Gāndhāra and Bactria. (It may not be correct to say that the Ionians colonized Bactria and Gāndhāra because Yavanas or Ionians originally belonged to Gāndhāra and Bactria.)	1890-1700 BCE
Antiyoka, the Indo-Greek King and his governors Turamaya, Antikini, Maga and Alikasundara were the contemporaries of King Kālāśoka or Aśoka.	1765-1737 BCE
Indo-Greek Governors of Gāndhāra, Bactria and Parthia gradually became independent rulers.	1700-1660 BCE
Alexander, Diodotus, Demetrius, Euthydemes, Pantaleon, etc.	1660-1530 BCE
Agathocles	1530-1510 BCE
Antimachus	1510-1500 BCE
Amyntas	1500-1485 BCE
Antialkidas	1485-1465 BCE
Minander I	1450-1430 BCE
Minander II (500 years after Buddha Nirvana)	1365-1340 BCE
Queen Agathoklea	1340-1330 BCE
Stratonus I	1330-1310 BCE
The Indo-Greek kings started using Indian names for themselves along with the names in Greek. (King Zoilos also had the name of Bhadrayaśa).	1300 BCE
The Indo-Greeks lost their kingdom due to the rise of Kushanas under the leadership of Kujula Kadphishes.	1250-1225 BCE

The Kushana Period

1. Kujula Kadphises or Kujula Kara Kadphises (1240-1190 BCE)
2. Saddakṣiṇa (Vima Taktu?) (1190-1175 BCE)

The Timeline of Kharavela

1. Khāravela ascended the throne (in 98th year elapsed from Naapit Nandaraj's coronation in 1129 BCE) 1031 BCE
2. Khāravela renovated the canal in his 5th regnal year and in the 103rd year of the epoch of Nandarāja. 1026 BCE
3. Khāravela sacked Goradgiri in his 8th regnal year that caused pressure on Rājagriha. Yavana King Vimaka (Vima Takha) retreated to Mathurā. 1023 BCE
4. Khāravela attacked Uttarāpatha and Magadha in his 12th regnal year. He brought back the idol of Jina of Kaliṅga which had been taken to Magadha by Nandarāja. He also appointed Bahasatimitra (Bṛhaspatimitra) as the king of Magadha. Probably, Bṛhaspatimitra was a later descendant of the Śuṅga dynasty.
(The Prabhas inscription (near Allahabad) refers to Āśādhasena, son of Vaihidari and the uncle (Mātula) of King Bṛhaspatimitra, the son of Gopāli. Many coins of Bṛhaspatimitra have been found in Kauśāmbī.)

The Kings of Magadha after 1019 BCE

1. Bṛhaspatimitra 19 years 1019-1000 BCE
